“I like to say, ‘People need more than a mortgage; they need a plan.’ So many people’s mortgages work at cross-purposes with their financial and personal goals and plans. Don’t let it happen to you.”

Jeff lives in Bloomfield with his wife, Dr. Dori Gatter, a psychotherapist in private practice in West Hartford.

Jeff is licensed in Connecticut, Rhode Island and the U.S. Virgin Islands, where he has a home.

He is currently enrolled in the Hartford Family Institute Body-Centered Gestalt Therapy Training Program.

He is a member of the Connecticut Mortgage Brokers Association (CMBA) and the National Association of Mortgage Brokers (NAMB).

He is also a National Driving Instructor for the Porsche Club of North America, and has raced extensively across the country.
